

	Weightage	Poor (0 to 4)	Approaching Expectation (4.5 to 5.5)	Satisfactory (6 to 7)	Good (7.5 to 8.5)	Excellent (9 or 10)
Understanding the Problem	40%	Demonstrates a limited grasp of the problem statement, missing key requirements or context. The core issue is not clearly identified.	Shows a basic understanding of the problem, but some important details or context are overlooked. The core issue is identified with some lack of clarity.	Demonstrates a solid understanding of the main aspects of the problem, including key requirements and context. The core issue is clearly identified.	Demonstrates a comprehensive understanding of the entire problem, including all requirements and context. The core issue and its underlying factors are well-identified.	Demonstrates an exceptional and insightful understanding of the problem, including all requirements and context. The core issue is articulated with precision and a deep understanding of its complexities is evident.
Identifying Solutions	60%	Generates few or no relevant solutions. Proposed solutions are impractical or do not directly address the problem. Limited creative thinking.	Generates a limited number of solutions, some of which may not be fully relevant or feasible. Shows some initial creative thinking.	Generates a reasonable number of potential solutions that generally address the problem. Demonstrates some creative exploration of different approaches.	Generates a diverse set of relevant and feasible solutions that directly address the problem. Demonstrates good creative thinking and considers various perspectives.	Generates a comprehensive and innovative range of highly relevant and feasible solutions, demonstrating strong creative and critical thinking. Explores diverse and well-reasoned approaches, including novel ideas.